Battle Creek, Mich., July 4.—Attorney-General Wickersham spoke before the Michigan State Bar Association here to-day, and discussed the Supreme Court's recent interpretation of the Sherman anti-trust law in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases. He gave his unqualified indorsement to the court's application of the so-called "rule of reason"

"Those who have thoughtlessly yielded to the superficial conclusion resulting from the application by the Chief Justice of the rule of reason to the interpretation of the Sherman law, he said, "can find but little to justify the idea that the Sherman law has been made ineffective by those two decisions, for precisely the contrary is extablished by these two great judgments."

ecisions, for precisely the contrary established by these two great udgments.

"The most cursory examination of the decree in the tobacco case—the most casual consideration of the dramatic and far-reaching remedy imposed—makes it perfectly apparent that the Sherman law, perhaps for the first time, has been demonstrated to be an actual effective weapon to the accomplishment of the purpose for which it was primarily enacted, namely, the destruction of the great combinations familiarly known as trusts.

"If this law," declared the Attorney-General, "designed to protect the people of this country from the evils of monopoly and to preserve the liberty of the individual to trade freely, shall now be clearly understood: If its true purpose shall be recognized and its beneficent consequences realized, the twenty years of slowly developed interpretation and widening precedent will not have been without great value. For the law will henceforth be used to employ Governor Woodrow Wilson's language, in his work. Only Three Cases on Commonwealth Docked Disposed Of.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Sussex, Va., July 6.—The July term of the Circuit Court of Sussex county, which convened on Monday, was an unusually short one. There were three cases on the Commonwealth docket, all of which were disposed of in a very short time. The case against Sam Messenburg, charged with a felony, was nolle prosequied; the case against Norman Caypell, charged with being cruel to animals, was heard by the court, and on a plea of guilty, he was given five months in the county itall and a fine of $15 and costs. Ned Day was indicted at the November term, 1966, for shooting Isaac Davis. After being indicted and before his trial he escaped jall and has been at large until a few weeks ago. He was tried on the same indictment and given three years in the penitentiary.

All of the givil cases were contintried on the same indictment and given three years in the penitentiary.

All of the civil cases were continued until the September term, that being a civil term. There were a very few decrees entered in the chancery matters.

After a session of one day Judge West adjourned until September.

City Receipts and Disbursements.

The report of Treasurer Ramay shows that the cash receipts of the city in the month of June were $11.-726.74. The report of Auditor Gill shows that the disbursements for the month were $208.131.72. The large sum disbursed is explained that in June the city redeemed in cash nearly the entire issue of $165.000 of bonds which matured on the first of the month. The actual bonded indebtedness retired was $155.700, leaving somewhat over $9,000 in this issue of bonds not yet presented for redemption.

Have Had No Further Irouble.

"On July 27, 1909, we left Boston for a trip to England and Ireland, taking baby with us. After being in Ireland a few days a nasty rash came out all over his body. We took him to a doctor who said if was chicken pox, and gave us medicine for him. The trouble started in the form of a rash and was all over baby's body, head and face, at different times. It irritated, and he would scratch it with all his might. The consequence was it developed into sores, and we were nasty scars on his face. "When we reached england we took baby to another doctor, who said his condition was due to change of food and climate, and gave more medicine. The rash got no better, and it used to itch and burn at night so bad that the child could not sleep. He was completely covered with it at different times. It was at this time that my mother advised us to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for about nine months the places disappeared. There are not any scars, or other kind of disfigurement, and baby is completely cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We have had no further trouble with baby's skin. Nothing stopped the itching, and allowed baby to sleep but Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world. Send to Potter Drug the contract of the start of the section for the section. keep the child on a little hair mattress (or pillow) preferably.

The most essential thing to preserve the baby's life in summer is to give it all the pure, clean water it needs.

The little baby cannot ask for the drink when its little lips are parched, and often when it cries in distress is given a rocking or a bouncing by the fond mother, with a gentie admonition to hush and go to sleep.

Little bables are very thirsty most of the time, and need water far more often than milk. Their pores are free and unobstructed, unlike those of grownups, who have to eliminate so much waste material, and whose pores become bably clogged.

Ruising Bubies Without Milk.
Bables, in summer especially, should have a teaspoonful of water every fitten minutes, and sometimes a table-spoonful of course, they must be held up properly in a sitting position when a spoon is used, otherwise keep a little bottle with clean cool water, not too cold, handy for feeding purposes, with rubben nipple, of course.
